ELECTRONIC FORM

Upon acceptance of publication, the preferred format of submission is the Kluwer \LaTeX journal style file. The style file may be accessed through a WWW site by means of the following commands:

WWW URL: <http://www.wkap.nl/>

- Choose "Author Instructions/Stylefiles"
- Choose "Journals Listed Alphabetically"
- Choose appropriate journal listing
- Choose "Stylefiles" from list of options

Authors are encouraged to read the "readme" file.

If you do not have access to WWW or have questions, please send e-mail to:

dthelp@wkap.com

The Kluwer L^AT_EX journal style file is the preferred format, and we urge all authors to use this style for existing and future papers; however, we can accept almost any word processing format (e.g., WordPerfect, MS Word, etc.) as well as ASCII (text only) files. Note, it is also helpful to supply both the source and ASCII files of a paper. Please submit encapsulated PostScript files for figures. An encapsulated PostScript figure file should be named after its figure number, e.g., fig 1.eps or circle 1.eps.

STYLE FOR MANUSCRIPT

1. Typeset, double space in English; use one side of sheet only (laser printed, typewritten, and good quality duplication acceptable). Our \LaTeX style file offers a draft mode for this purpose.
2. Use an informative title for the paper and include an abstract of 100 to 250 words at the head of the manuscript. The abstract should be a carefully worded description of the problem addressed, the key ideas introduced, and the results. Abstracts will be printed with the article.
3. Provide a separate double-spaced sheet listing all footnotes, beginning with “Affiliation of author” and continuing with numbered footnotes. Notes are printed at the end of the article before the references. Acknowledgment of financial support may be given if appropriate.
4. References should appear in a separate bibliography at the end of the paper in alphabetical order with items referred to in the text by author and date of publications in parentheses, e.g., (Marr, 1982). References should be complete, in the following style:

Style for papers: Authors, last names followed by first initials, year of publication, title, volume, inclusive page numbers.

Style for books: Authors, year of publication, title, publisher and location, chapter and page numbers (if desired).

Examples as follows:

Books

Schoemaker, P. (1980). Experiments on Decisions Under Risk: The Expected Utility Hypothesis. Boston: Kluwer-Nijhoff Publishing.

Smith, V.K. (1986). “A Conceptual Overview of the Foundations of Benefit-Cost Analysis.” In Judith Bentkover, Vincent Covello, and Jeryl Mumpower (eds.), Benefits Assessment: The State of the Art. Dordrecht: D. Reidel Publishing Co.

Journals

Stephen, F.H. (1986). “Decision Making Under Certainty: In Defense of Shackle.” Journal of Economic Studies. 13, 45–57.

STYLE FOR ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Originals for illustrations should be sharp, noise-free, and of good contrast. We regret that we cannot provide drafting or art service.
2. Line drawings should be in laser printer output or in India ink on paper, or board. Use $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ -inch (22×29 cm) size sheets if possible, to simplify handling of the manuscript.
3. Each figure should be mentioned in the text and numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals. Specify the desired location of each figure in the text, but place the figure itself on a separate page following the text.

4. Number each table consecutively using Arabic numerals. Please label any material that can be typeset as a table, reserving the term “figure” for material that has been drawn. Specify the desired location of each table in the text, but place the table itself on a separate page following the text. Type a brief title above each table.
5. All lettering should be large enough to permit legible reduction.
6. Photographs should be glossy prints, of good contrast and gradation, and any reasonable size.
7. Number each original on the back.
8. Provide a separate sheet listing all figure captions, in proper style for the typesetter, e.g., “Figure 3. Examples of the fault coverage of random vectors in (a) combinational and (b) sequential circuits.”

PROOFING

Page proofs for articles to be included in a journal issue will be sent to the contact author for proofing, unless otherwise informed. The proofread copy should be received back by the Publisher within 72 hours.

COPYRIGHT

It is the policy of Kluwer Academic Publishers to own the copyright of all contributions it publishes. To comply with the U.S. Copyright Law, authors are required to sign a copyright transfer form before publication. This form returns to authors and their employees full rights to reuse their material for their own purposes. Authors must submit a signed copy of this form with their manuscript.

REPRINTS

Each group of authors will be entitled to 50 free reprints of their paper. Additional reprints may be ordered from the Publisher prior to publication. An order form will be sent to the contact author with page proof.
