

EDIS 771: Reading in the Content Areas

Raymond C. Jones, Instructor

		QUALITY of TASKS	COMPLETENESS of TASKS	TIMELINESS of TASKS	ATTENDANCE	PARTICIPATION
Unquestionably	A+	honors spirit of task; exceptional quality and insight; a rare and valuable contribution to our understanding	honors spirit of task 100% complete "model"	100% on time	100%	100%
Definitely	A	convincingly on target with the purpose of the task; evidence of growth; the learning is difficult to refute; worthy contribution to our understanding; reader not distracted by errors of grammar, spelling, or punctuation	what's missing may not be missed; accurate; on target with regard to what was to be produced; seamless; a whole product	almost always on time; rare but forgivable tardiness	absent less than 1 session	outstanding; facilitates/promotes conversation focused on the goal
	A-				absent 1 session	well-above average; actively helps move group toward goal
Mostly	B+	competent and worthy; provides credible evidence of learning and growth; may not completely honor spirit of task; perhaps an "off-day"; errors of grammar, spelling, punctuation distract the reader	moderate shortcomings; minor elements missing; affects instructor's ability to see the product as a whole	late enough or often enough to attract instructor's notice; not necessarily chronic	absent less than 3 sessions	reliable, steady worker; would inconvenience group if they had to do without you, but they would do without you
	B
Sort Of	B-	barely passable; only enough to get by; little evidence of proofreading	barely sufficient; least you could do and justify	most tasks late or some excessively late; chronic?
Hardly	C	undergraduate level/quality; unsophisticated; exhibits or depends little or none on course content or concepts	evidence of learning or growth insufficient to "convict"	excessively or repeatedly late	absent 3 sessions	weak or minimal participation; passive; side-tracks group; doesn't share roles or responsibilities
Definitely Not	F	unacceptable	difficult to recognize as the assigned task or not turned in at all	missing/not submitted	absent more than 3 sessions	non-participating; counter-productive; destructive; demeaning to others